West Point Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
West Point, Va., August 27.—Because Beach Park closed on last Sunday, West Point was not at once bereft. Visitors did not leave, and did not cease coming. The Terminal is still open and the various boarding-houses are doing well, and people not away taking a vacation are entertaining company in their homes. Launch parties seem to be the favorite mode of entertainment.

Among these parties was one to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Beauregard Turner, at "Kentucky," their country home on the banks of the Mattaponi River. P. B. Hughes took the company in his new launch.

Misses Mary Minor and Susan Randolph Diggs, of Richmond, were of the party. Mrs. Turner tendered the guests a feast of watermelon and cantaloupes. Another party went to Williamsburg on Tuesday, spent the day, attended a dance in Williamsburg, and reached West Point early Wednesday morning.

Mrs. R. J. Palmer, Misses Inez Palmer and Kathryn Geddy returned on Wednesday from a delightful trip to the White Sulphur Springs.

Rev. T. A. Hall, Mrs. Hall and son, Walter Hall, left Thursday morning for a trip of some weeks. They will go first to Washington, D. C., and then to Fauquier county.

Mrs. M. P. Chandler and little daughter, Elizabeth, left Wednesday to visit Mrs. Edwards at Lanesville, and will be gone about ten days.

Mrs. Curtis Hansford, formerly of West Point, now of Norfolk, is the guest of Mrs. J. L. Mulford.

Mrs. John Elms, of New York, who spent the summer at the Ridge House, accompanied by her son, Carl, will return to New York next week.

Mrs. Janet Hoskins, of Saluda, is spending the month of August near Weyer's Cave, in Augusta county, with her son, Dr. Horace Hoskins.

Miss Minnie Levin, of Baltimore, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. H. Vitz. Miss Levin was a student at Columbia University last session, and will return to take her degree there the coming term.

Rev. Alfred Bagby, of Richmond, was the guest of relatives this week. He spent the week-end with Dudley Diggs, at Little Plymouth.

Mrs. Ellen Fox visited friends in West Point, recently, en route from Richmond to her home in Mathews county.

Wytheville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Wytheville, Va., August 27.—Monday evening the young women gave one of the most enjoyable parties of the season at Boyd's Hotel. It was led by Stuart Campbell, dancing with Miss Virginia Dew.
